Fresenius Kabi and Russian partners terminate joint venture agreement

Fresenius Kabi and its partners Sistema JSFC and Zenitco Finance Management LLC have mutually agreed to terminate the joint venture agreement announced in April 2014. The intention was to combine Fresenius Kabi's Russian and CIS business with the partners' subsidiary CJSC Binnopharm. Changing political and regulatory circumstances in the region have made the closing of the joint venture more challenging than anticipated.

Fresenius Kabi entered the Russian market in 1994 and today provides infusion therapies, clinical nutrition and I.V. drugs. The company is committed to further grow its business in the region, and is exploring other potential options to cooperate with Binnopharm.
